

Matthis Scheurer

Matthis Scheurer, a Swiss citizen, built his career in the insurance industry in various managerial positions with Swiss Re, Zurich and HDI Global as well as Kessler & Co (a leading insurance broker), after completing an officer career track with the Swiss armed forces (captain) and the Zurich management school (Kaderschule Zürich). He first served as Crearene's CEO until November 2021, focusing on bringing all patents into the Swiss AG and to secure mid-term financing for the company. With his background in finance and his general managerial skills, he then moved into the role as CFO. Matthias is a very pragmatic, hands-on person who continues to work as a part-time farmer next to his other business interests and hobbies.
