

Arnd Bätzner

Arnd Bätzner studied physics and transport management and is a graduate of the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETH) in Zurich. His PhD studies at the Institute of Systemic Management and Public Governance at the University St. Gallen focus on innovative transport infrastructure in global megacities and fast-growing urban hubs. Among others he is cooperating with the Future Cities Lab at ETH/NUS Singapore. Arnd holds several senior positions in international organizations and supports both governments and management teams in advisory and board roles, for example since 2011 as part of the board of the Swiss car sharing pioneer "Mobility".
